FIRST STATION

I am the living bread that came down from heaven.

John 6: 47-51

All kneel for a moment of silent adoration.

Jesus said to the crowds: “No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: / They shall all be taught by God. / Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my Flesh for the life of the world.”

✠ The Gospel of the Lord.

✠ Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Bishop / Priest:

Let us pray.

O God, who in this wonderful sacrament
have left us a memorial of your Passion,

grant us, we pray,

so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood
that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.

Who live and reign with God the Father

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

God, for ever and ever. ✠ Amen.

The priest will give a Ferferino (a quick exhortation/message) and Benediction and the faithful will then process to the next station.

SECOND STATION

They all ate and were satisfied.

Mark 6: 34; 39-44

All kneel for a moment of silent adoration.

When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. So he gave orders to have them sit down in groups on the green grass. The people took their places in rows by hundreds and by fifties. Then, taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; he also divided the two fish among them all. They all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up twelve wicker baskets full of fragments and what was left of the fish. Those who ate of the loaves were five thousand men.

✠ The Gospel of the Lord.

✠ Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Bishop / Priest:

O God, life of the faithful,
glory of the humble, blessedness of the just,
listen kindly to the prayers
of those who call on you,
that they who thirst for what you generously promise
may always have their fill of your plenty.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. ✠ Amen.

The priest will give a Feriverino (a quick exhortation/message) and Benediction and the faithful will then process to the next station.

THIRD STATION

Do this in memory of me.

Matthew 26: 26-29

All kneel for a moment of silent adoration.

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and giving it to his disciples said, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, from now on I shall not drink this fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it with you new in the kingdom of my Father."

✠ The Gospel of the Lord.

℟ Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Bishop / Priest:

O God, who by the Precious Blood of your Only Begotten Son
have redeemed the whole world,
preserve in us the work of your mercy,
so that, ever honoring the mystery of our salvation,
we may merit to obtain its fruits.
Through our lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. ℟ Amen.

The priest will give a Ferverino (a quick exhortation/message) and Benediction and the faithful will then process to the next station.

FOURTH STATION

They recognized Jesus in the breaking of bread.

Luke 24: 28-35

All kneel for a moment of silent adoration.

[The two disciples] urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the Eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted to them what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

ψ The Gospel of the Lord.

℟ Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Bishop / Priest:

O God, who have accomplished the work of human redemption through the Paschal Mystery of your Only Begotten Son, graciously grant that we, who confidently proclaim, under sacramental signs, the Death and Resurrection of Christ, may experience continued increase of your saving grace. Through our lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. ℟ Amen.

The priest will give a Feriverino (a quick exhortation/message) and Benediction and the faithful will then process to the next station.

✠ You have given them bread from heaven.

℟ Having all sweetness within it.

The minister stands and continues:

Let us pray. O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

℟ Amen.

After the prayer, the priest or deacon puts on the humeral veil, genuflects, and, taking the monstrance, makes a sign of the cross over the people in silence. There follows the recitation of the Divine Praises.
